

EMMS Distance Learning Instruction, Office Hours

Per LAUSD guidelines: There should be at least three (1-hour block each) office hours during the week. In this way, students and families know how to reach you during that time, and consider different times during the day to accommodate parents with differing work schedules (morning or afternoon). There can be various modes of communication (e.g. phone call, email, Schoology, or the option of three conferencing methods - Zoom, Microsoft Teams, or GoTo Meetings (for adults) - which are available through Single-Sign On).
